BY various Winds, and boistrous Surges tost,
And many an honest English Sea-man lost,
On ~~these~~ our ~~isles~~'s arriv'd at last,
From whence, with woful Prospect looking round,
We see our Neighbour's, midst the Waves, near drown'd,
Tugging the Oar to reach our ~~en~~'d ground.
Blest be the Pilot, whose Expence and Care Brought us into the Port in which we are;
And ~~happy~~ that was his Guide, preserve him here.
And now (dear Friend) to you I turn my Stile;
The happy Owner of our blessed Isle
Not Neph's Dove more innocent our fiew,
Or yet rear'd with more Success than You
The Dove and Partridge we'd esteem all one,
Had not the ORANGE the Olive-Branch our done.
I well remember when this Isle you left,
And stole away, (and Heaven approv'd the theft)
To hinder Egypt, leaving us forlorn;
Not to betray us, but to send us Corn.
Our English Magi sold their Wares so dear,
We'd surely starv'd, had Joseph not been there.
Witness thy Prince of Wales, John Gadsbury
Oh BELLARMINE, thou'lt sold a swinging Lie
Thy Lying Churches Spirit does appear
In thee: when Hang'd, thou'lt be a Saint next year,
As good as any in thy Kalender.
This Interloper of the Stars, we see,
By false returns made in Astrology,
Had crackt the Credis of the Company.
To modern Prophecy none did afford
Their Faith, till You its Credit had restor'd.
Who but your Self could this blest Turn of State
So long ago, with Circumstance relate?
Who else durst pry into the Book of Fate?
Farewel (dear Friend) go on and prosper still;
So good a Prophet ne re can bode us ill.

Your humble Servant, L. D.

To the Honest Reader.

Gentlemen,

Since my last Appearance in this manner, there have been many and strange Mutations in this Kingdom: And to our Comfort, the Lord hath wrought a mighty Work in delivering his Church and People from the Rage of their Enemies; the Rapacious Papists, whose Design was Murder; and those that escap'd that, must have been Slaves to the Arbitrary Laws of France and Rome, if they were fallen into their Hands, and there was no visible way left for Deliverance, till God appeared in a wondrous manner; and tho it was done by the mighty Power of God, yet was he pleas'd to use an Instrument; by which that great Work was done, and to whom we all stand oblig'd in Duty for our Safety and Deliverance; and let us never forget it; no, nor yet suffer Popery ever to enter here again, but declare your selves fatal Enemies to all that shall attempt it, and rather dye by the Sword, than the Faggot; and let not Lewis of France be your King: for that is the Design of all those that are King William's Enemies, and hinder the present Affairs going on.

And knowing, that this little Book will run the whole Nation through, I will therefore acquaint my Country-men with the Reason of my difference with J. Gaddbury, that the World may see I am blameless in the Quarrel. The ground of our Difference I know not, and would desire him to relate it; but when I was beyond Sea, and he [as well as some others] thought they should never see me more, he wrote a Book against me, which he call'd A Reply; so full of Malice, Ill Language, Lies and malicious Expressions, almost impossible to be believed; or, that a Villain should be so ungrateful to a Man in Tribulation, that never gave him the least occasion imaginable: If I did, let him speak, and I will both hear and Answer; and remain a Good in his Side, while I am

The INTRODUCTION &c.

YOU know [I judge] those things that God alone,

Against his Foes hath for his People done:

Preserving them from Floods, from Fire and Foes,

And the Egyptian-Slavery, worse than those.

How he dealt Laws to them, and how the Yoke

Of cursed Tyrants were by Heaven broke?

How Israel's Bands, arm'd with the mighty Name,

Drove out whole Nations, Conquering where they came

Twixt Foes and Foes, their Judges fought their Cause,

And could disperse with Arms, tho not with Laws. Per-

Perhaps you've heard too, Israel's baptis'd shame,

How they, when left of God, were overcome:

After much Blood, and all their Treasure lost;

Their last dear Jewel (Liberty) it cost.

From their own Country drove by such a Crew,

As Rome's curs'd Brood, who worship'd Idols too.

Whence after God had their Obedience wr'd,

He brought them Home, himself their Sacred Guide.

Will this perhaps you've heard; yet one thing more

You've seen, as great great as any was before.

How a poor Nation was by Trick betray'd,

Under the guise of Faith its Ruin laid.

But God appear'd, when help seem'd vain; he rose

And call'd him forth, whom he before had chose:

Nations and Crowns are all at his dispose.

Cause, as Lives, had each its period set,

Extended here; here in their Consort met.

The Seas agreed, the Wind directly blew

For it, its Great Creator's order knew.

The Seas couch'd down, and seem'd to adore,

And hug the Burden that its Shoulders bore.

For never was its Waves so deck'd before

They weigh'd, and thence by the Great Pilot's hand;

They were conducted to the longing Land.

Where the Oppress'd did wait, and Silence keep;

For God had call'd their Enemies to Sleep;

Who when they wak'd, shook with their trembling rage,

Yet wanted Skill or Courage to engage.

Some wanted Hearts, some wanted wills: Obey,

Some they had both, yet fled in Broods away.

The great Ones shook, base fear their hearts subdu'd;

They even fled too, when no man pursu'd:

Forsook of God, of Courage quite bereft;

Scarce [of their mighty Host] a handful left.

Like Great Goliath, when he fell, he curs'd

Had these not done so too, they'd surely dur'd.

All Miracle! Almighty was that Power

Some Angel led the Van, and went before;

What matter force? Remember Gilead's El

The Man that God sends forth, he must prevail

In our own Land, once more we've lov'd to see (Slavery,
 Popery kickt out, and with that
 By a blest Hand, and the Almighty He.

This Month doth not seem adapted for much Business in the Publick; what is, will be managed privately, because the Affairs concerned do really require it to be so. At the last new ☽, there were no material Rays, nor Positions, and therefore I judg things are preparing for some; and the reason seems plain, because ♀ and ♂ are applying to the Mundane Squares of the ☉ and
 ☽, and the ☉ and ☽ the only Stars
 Angular at that time.

Hence proceeds the ground of some new Irruption or Difference in Germany, and the Countrys more Eastward.

In this Month also, we shall have some Treaty or Conference, by Commissioners or Ambassadors, about settling Affairs and Differences of those States and Princes, to whom they belong.

The end of this month, or beginning of the next, will undoubtedly give Violence and violent Actions, and perhaps private murder and such like,
 &c.

February hath XXVIII Days.

The ruffling Rays of the Mistick-fare

In the last Month, gives bloody Action now.

This gives such news, as doth attend the Wars.

Altho this Season doth it not allow.

Blood craves for Blood, this Villanies beget;

Perhaps the Teagueland-Rebels pay for it.

I cannot but admire to see what a kind of a Figure we have at the last new ☾, there being such a crowd and cluster of ill Aspects to attend it, five of the Planets were cadent, and the other two were remote from Angles, and all except 4 beholding one the other with 1 malignant Rays; this I dare be positive in, That it gives Destruction, Mischiefe, and Ruin, and the expence of much Blood also, and this in Ireland; for ♀ and ♂, who afflict all the other, are in 8 from ♀ and ♀, and one of them the Heroscope of that Kingdom; the effects of these positions will be the only and principal Affair of this month, and I think they shew a Popish plot too.

Towards the end we may hear of the taking some Town, Castle, &c. by surprise, and the delivering of some others, and that attended with some Fights, or other brisk Action by Land: Likewise the preferment of a deserving Person and the turning out of some others, that have not done well, and yet perhaps more than they have thanks for their labour too.

♂ is now Stationary and Retrograde in the Ascendens of the French King, and there in square to his Midheaven, which gives him loss of Honour, Treachery, and no Success.

March bath XXXI Days.

By various Rays, the Stars send forth their powers,

As by the crouds of Aspects, here we see,

And do their Duties ; could we but do ours.

Less were our Crimes, less would our Difference be.

Hermes in hurry here, runs to and fro.

Hence doth that motion, mighty Councils shew.

We here find no less then six of the seven Planets, all in watry Signs, and an Eclipse of the ☉ in ♋, a watry Sign also. This will undoubtedly give a wet and foul season; and according to the Opinion of Junstina, an Eclipse in watry Signs, doth shew the Death and Destruction of the common People, Wars and Sedition.

This great Congress of the Planets in ♋, doth shew great Meetings to consult of eminent and considerable Affairs; and methinks it looks untowardly, and with a frowning Countenance toward the Dominion and Government of France; what think you of an Association there, to give him a remove? 'tis probable, if those People have but Courage; for he is still asking his Horoscope, Sun and Midheaven, and his ☉ is also approaching the Square of ♄ by direction; it cannot kill him, but I hope it will give him an Effect suitable to his merit.

The Square of ♂ and ♀, shews some discovery of Coiners, &c. and perhaps a Plot too; may they concern'd receive their merit the right way.

Some Clergy-men under ill Opinions and Censures, and a witty Mercuriallist preferred.

April bath XXX Days.

By Nature's Laws doth common motion bring,

As if in stronger Currents they did move

The pressing Strengths and Pleasures of the Spring

Those rich and plenteous Products from above.

Sal frowns at Chronos, and he Retrograde;

Thou mighty Tyrant ! Fate must be obey'd

The \odot of 4 and \odot in π , is of great and eminent Service to the Affairs of Great Britain, and the Government thereof; perhaps about this time some Plot may be detected, and some of considerable Note concern'd therein; perhaps, with this we may hear likewise of some taken that endeavour to deface, spoil or abuse the King's Coin, or use some other unlawful Practice with those kind of Metals; and the Square of σ and \odot , doth sometimes give the undoing breaking or going off of some eminent Merchant, Banker, or such like Trustee, &c.

The * of the ☉ considered with those Accidents and Circumstances that do attend him and ☿ shows some important and considerable Actions; either at Sea or Land, altho early in the year, but it seems more probable for

The 8 of ♀ and ♀, give danger of Death to a great Lady; and to such the 8 of ♀ and the ☉, give danger of Death, by reason of the Gun, to a great and eminent Man; and also loss of Honour to some others. &c.

If Ireland is not yet Reduced, it goes very bad with those that are at this time, both by want and destruction.

The season is now ripe for Action, and those whose employments leads them to be concern'd therein, seem as ready and willing to act as become brave and bold valiant men. For Mars is here in a mundane Trine to Jupiter, and applying to a Zodiacal Trine.

The Dutch are promised by that position great Success and Advantage, both by Sea and Land, against their and Europe's Enemies. And so is England also, but there is a more powerful position to their advantage: I pray God increase the Glory that attends it. But Ireland is in a bad condition, I mean to those Rebels therein, yet the Country is also much impoverished, and ruined by those ruinous Courses that it hath for long lay under.

Mercury by his position in the House hath particular signification of the affairs of France and Ireland, as to those that pretend to Govern or Command therein in opposition to the Government of England; some Cities or Castles, or both, distressed and delivered after some Conflict and Dispute about Conditions, and the French Treaty, it and I suppose, will partly with Melancholy and Vexation, perhaps his Old Disease.

A Lawyer or Clergy-man, preferred for his Parts and Learning. B

June hath XXX days.

The Sullen Star with frowning Angry Look,
Drew back and Snarl'd and slowly pac'd away,
At last into an Angry Passion broke,
Holding his Hand up, thus began to say,
I'll make thee know, with that he checkt his Word,
True Malice Acts, and will no Speech afford.

Observations.

This Lunation seems to concern the City of London, for the Sun and Moon are born in a Mundane parallel with Saturn, and he Lord of the Tenth and Eleventh Houses: It seems to shew some difference among its Governours, or some discontent about Precedency and Order. But the Sun and Moon are also at the same time in a Mund. par. with Jupiter, which will make it short and the ease to be accommodated; Perhaps the difference might be about making the P. of Wales a Prince on his Birth-day.

A Souldier for his meritt receiveth considerable Honour and Preferment: But I think he doth not long keep it without some blemish by ill report: and may well if he doth not deserve it too. However at the beginning of the month, there is a probability of some Martial Action considerable:

The square of Saturn and Mars will give and spend its Effects in Licham:
Accident populo anxietates & mala exte regum: & ipsi non erunt eis ibi Reges & erunt multa furta.

The Trine of the Sun and Saturn gives Life to some Old Gentleman; or he gains New Honour or Repairs his gets rid of a fit of the Gout; and all all that gives some Embellish.

Titan upon his Royal Throne appears,
Receives from Jove a fair but flatt'ring Ray,
Amidst his Glory when he's void of Fears,
Surprised by an unexpected way ;
For Chronos meets him there with low'ring Brow
And checks his Glory ; whence his Troubles flow.

Observations.

The month begins with Saturn being Stationary on the French Kings Horoscope in Square to his Midheaven: This makes his Worship fret and fume to see himself crost in his Designs and Enterprizes; but let me tell him, it will be worse when his Sun toucheth the square of Saturn by direction which is very speedily, and Mars now also on his Radical Midheaven in square to Saturn: - 132

This Lunation falls in Cancer the Ascendent of Holland and Scotland, and the two Lights there in direct parallel Mund. with Jupiter, which gives those Countries success and advantage; but especially the former who now seems blest with considerable advantage against, and upon the Troubler of Europe and his accomplices: Nay, let me lay Cancer concerns England too, and gives her a share in the Action, and these things seem the more rational, because of the square of the Sun and Saturn toward the end of the Month.

The Trine of the Sun and Jupiter give Honour to the Law and its professors, and Jupiter Stationary, advanceth the Interest of England, and about this Time expect Foreign Ambassadors, or other ways of Complement to the King thereof.

Mercury seems employed to the purpose this Month, as if there were something of Great and Eminent weight in hand, that requires Intelligence from one to the other that are therein concern'd; it is very considerable, because he is not only Angular, but in Cancer, a Tropical Sign in the Angle of War and Contention: And if you observe his Square to Saturn it is not very welcome neither to some, altho they are at the same time concern'd in it.

But observe : The Last New man was in 12 deg. of Leo on the Horoscope of a certain King in square to Saturn on the Ascendent of another King : Hence judge what a condition they are in at this time. Besides their Misery and Vexation,

Great and various are the reports of this Month, some for this and some for that, but let them talk what they will, in the next Month that will decide the matter, here is Whipping work going forward.

I fear an unhealthy, nay, a sickly season, which God of his Mercy averts.

Lunar Sports.

Observations.

At the last New Moon we find all the Planets (except Jupiter) under the Earth, and the first application of the Moon was to the Body of Mars, and the opposition of Jupiter, and they two the only Anglar Stars at that time. This shews some action of the Nature of Mars &c. that is by Arms and Violence, the common effects of Rage or Revenge.

The Aspects of this month [behold
the Lunation] are of themselves violent, and threaten blood, and the destruction of mankind, for they happen from humane Signs, this seems to threaten France either with an Invasion, or what is as good an Insurrection in her own Bowels, to deliver themselves from their oppressions and burthen of Tyranny: For now is Saturn exactly on that Mans Radical Horoscope: And Haly seems to give us a reason for it: For says he Rex faciet miseras molestias & mala populo which is true of him.

Jupit. extremely favours England and the Illustrious K. thereof by his various transits and stations most part of this year and in particular in this present Month.

The Affairs of France goeth very ill in all parts where they are concerned either as principal or assistant, and so let it continue with them.

October hath XXXI days.

All things do from the Seeds of Nature flow,
 As Storms and Airy Meteors, War and Peace,
 And lie reserv'd; till the Great He says go,
 Denounce to Man this War; or that Disease.
 And tho' the year's far spent, E're this Month End
 Some Warlike Rumour will our Ears attend.

This Month seems to be attended with as violent effects as any in the whole year, for here are no less than five violent Lunations that do successively follow one another, and most of them in Libra, a Cardinal Sign: And with these there is a Conjunction of the Sun and Mars near the Virgo Sign in Libra: The effects of these things do certainly give violence of divers kinds; where Armies are near and in the Field it gives fighting and battle; upon the Frontiers Skirmishing in parties, and this particularly in some parts of Germany and Flanders: Likewise about this time you will hear of more private Murders and endeavours tending thereto, than in any Month in the whole year besides, and this in England as well as in other places.

England receiveth welcome News from the Eastern parts of the World and their Allies in those parts.

Twice doth Mars joynt Saturn this Month in Scorpio, it hath two effects, the one general to Pen-Men, some of which will fall under the Law to the purpose; and the other to the French King, who is now about some pernicious contrivance, but it will take wind too soon for his intent.

November hath XXX. days

Here's mighty Jove to Irish ridings brings
 Of some great Action that's perform'd by War Against th' Enchaunted and Delinquent Kings.
 Under a glorious and propitious Star
 To make it more: Chronos and Maiores joyn
 In Tray'rous Scorpio, young Nero's Sign.

Lunar Aspects.

Observations.

The Configurations of this mitch shews those concern'd in War, especially they that have been the occasion of that and the spilling so much blood in Assire to be inclin'd to peace, if it may be attained: Which God grant it may, if it be to his honour, and the interest of his people. Now Armenia begin to retire, and yet at their departure, there seems a considerable Town or Principality, either seized or delivered, without the loss of much blood.

The Conjunctions of the Sun and Saturn, the Sun and Mercury, and Mars and Mercury in treacherous Scorpio the Phrygian Tyrant Ascendent shews his Council divided, and his mind disturbed, being negative under his present affairs, and suddenly after upon the Conjunction of H. & S. therein will much advance those bad wretched effects before spoken of, and perhaps push him upon some kind of action that may be of advantage to his Enemies.

Here is News from all parts, and various Discourses according to your men that you converse with, but in general it is a month of Noise, you will see about what when it comes.

This month seems inclin'd to cold to the purpose, and I think looks like a frost;
in short the month is full of violence.

The many and various Aspects in the last Month will mightily sway the publick and private affairs of this ; but above all the conjunction of Saturn and Mars in the 23 degree of that Traiterous Sign Scorpio, the French Kings Horoscope : And I think it concerns him in particular for that reason : Significat (says one) bellum & effusionem sanguinis ac multitudinem febrium, &c. Let him look after the particulars ; for I know he will feel a large share of its products.

There is great News now discoursed of from some of the Territories and Dominions of France : There is still endeavours used to accommodate Europe with Peace, but I think the last Months Conjunction will go near to hinder it, notwithstanding there is great endeavours used to effect it : Nay there seems to be some Petticoat Ambassadors employed in the work too ; And this Courtship is made to him who is immediately concerned in Jupiters being Stationary in 28 deg. of Pisces last Month.

Some little difference riseth between a Clergy-man and a Courier, but it is soon ended again.

I doubt not but we shall have out Annual preched Astrologers cant with this Government this year, as they did with Pope and the Prince of Wales last year.

THE Elixer Proprietatis, with the perfect Mether of in all or most Diseases, is made and sold at the Sign of Van Helmonts-Head in Heydon-Yard in the Minories, at Mr.
Jorns Shop at the South Entrance of the Royal Exchange, at
Mr. Crouch's at the Corner of Popes-Head-Alley in Corahill, at Mr. Lawrences at the Angel in the Poultry, at Mr. Brewsters at the Craze in Pauls Church-yard, at Mr. Playfords Stationer in the Temple, at Mr. Gavels at the Faulcon in Westmin- ster-Hall, at the Tobacco-Roll and Spur by Turn-Street.

At these places you may have the ELIXER, and a Printed Book with it, directing you in its Use. It hath proved a very good Medicine in the late distempers of the Guts, Small Pox and putrid Fevers; it is exceeding good against Wind, especially for Women in Child birth, for which I make frequent use of it, and by Gods blessing with good success.

All Persons are desired to take care that they buy none
Counterfeit, the best being to be had at the places before mentioned and no where else.

Judicium Astrologicum

Pro Anno 1690.

I begin with the Suns entrance in Capricorn on the 11th day of December, at 45 Min. and 30 Secon. past one of the Clock in the Morning, 1689. at the time of this Ingress, we find 24 degrees of Cancer Culminant, and 18 deg. of Libra Ascending: Mars in the 7th House in 27 deg. of Aries, and Saturn in 15 deg. of Scorpio, in exact Trine to the Mid-heaven, and the Moon 17 deg. in Aries, hasting to the Mundane Parallel of Mars; of all the Planets there are none Angular but Mars and the Moon, and they in the 7th, the Angle of Contention and War; nor none above the Earth but them two, and the first application of the Moon is to the Body of Mars, and next to the Mundane square of the Sun, who is Cadent in the Third House, we also find Saturn and Jupiter in a Mundane square one to the other, and this under the Earth from fixed Signs.

The first thing I shall observe in the figure, is, that five of the seven Planets are under the Earth, and the Moon also just leaving the Western Horizon, and falling into the sixth, and then under the Earth also: This shews that the Face of Affairs are hush and private in most parts of Europe, and that now they are in Council and Debate about Matters and Things that relate to Kingdoms and Nations, and that particularly to such things as concern War and Peace; and how those Affairs shall be managed when the Season of the year doth require and permit Action. Jupiter, who is Lord of the Third and Fifth, is in the Fifth lately in Sexule to the Sun, who is Lord of the Tenth: This seems to explain and shew the reason of the former Consultations, Debates and Councils; and that is either about the receiving or sending forth some Ambassador in a certain Kingdom of Europe now in distress, for if you observe when the Sun was in Sexule to Jupiter, he was likewise in Trine to Mars in Aries in the Seventh House; which shews it is in order to reconcile some difference between Kingdom and Kingdom; but the Moon hastening to the Par. Mund. of Mars, and Saturn and Jupiter in a Mundane square from the 5th and 2d Houses, shews that this Business will come to an ill Conclusion, and to a fruitless Issue, occasioned by the Terms and Offers which will not be accepted; but the applying Parallel of the Sun and Jupiter both direct and secondary, will bring the matter to a further and second Debate, but all to no purpose nor Effect. Saturn in exact Trine to the Mid-heaven, shews that a certain Prince's Affairs go on very well that hath his Nativity agreeing to this position. Saturn also in the 2d Peregrine, and in square to Jupiter the Author of Wealth and Riches, sheweth also that there is a certain King in great distress and discontent of Mind, and that there shall be much damage come to the inhabitants that are subject to the Signs of Scorpio and Taurus.

The Moon going first to the Mundane Parallel of Mars, sheweth there shall be some design for an Action of violence that will be accomplished when she arrives at his Body, and that will be by measure of time about ten Weeks after the Ingress, that is about the beginning of March; and this in those Kingdoms or Countreys subject to Aries or Libra, or their Quadrangles: Mars being in his own House, and the only Planet Angular and Essentially dignified, tells us, That the Winter Quarter will be govern'd by the power of Mars in the 7th House, so that on the Frontiers of Nations, and where Souldiers of different Armies are near each other, there will be sudden Attacks, Irruptions and Inroads made by the Enemy into those Countreys and Quarters adjoining, and that the result of the Councils of this Quarter will tend to Violence and War, and for preparing Matters for such Actions and Designs against the Spring when it shall be time to take the Field; and that they seem more resolved to manage it with Force and Cruelty than ever; and this the rather, because Mars is going to the opposition of Saturn, and at the same time the Sun is in square to them both, as you may see in the end of January. And this brings me to consider the Spring Quarter which enters.

This year March the ninth, at 15 Hours and 25 Min. P. M. 1690, according to the Caroline Tables, but according to Shakerly's Tables [which Gadbury arrogantly calls his] at 13 Hours 43 Min. P. M. yet by the Telintan in the Meridian of Bacon at 16 Hours 29 Min. P. M. Thus you see how different the Tables are in the Suns entrance into the Equinoctial Sign Aries, from whence I shall make this Observation; That a Figure of Heaven cannot be expected to be so exact as to depend on it to a Degree and Min. in the Ascendant, as some will persuade us to believe; believed may not be a Sign neither, or two or three sometimes; if so, then how idle must that be to make a long Judgment about the presence of the Planets in the Houses, when perhaps at this time pretended they are far distant from them? But this we are sure of, that the Sun doth enter into that Sign at sometime of this Morning, and that all the Planets are in the Zodiack, or near it; and there beholding each other by different distances, and from different places and parts of Heaven, either Zodiacal or Mundane; perhaps both; and therefore they ought to be the Basis of our Judgment, and not rely so much on their presence in the Houses, tho I know at sometimes when Signs of long Ascension are in the Oriental part of Heaven, that Judgment is far more certain.

In the Figure [set to the former time mentioned of 15 Hours 45 Min.] we find 19 deg. of Capricorn Ascending, and 24 deg. of Scorpio in the Cusp. of the M. C. The Moon is entering into the 4th House, Saturn in Scorpio in the 9th, and Mars in the 4th in Gemini, among the Stars of Orion; the other three, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury being in Pisces in the 2d, and the Sun there also entering Aries; and five of the seven are under the Earth. If we consider the Figure in general, it may perhaps at the first sight seem to be inconsiderate, but if we consider it seriously, we shall find Mars hastening to the Square of Jupiter and Mercury, and this under the Earth, which strengthens Haly's Opinion of the Aspect. That is, that there shall be many and these great Offences committed; and this done in secret, and also under presence of Religion and Conscience, but indeed it is intended for Rebellion and Disturbance to the Government; but if they will be Knaves, let them go on and see what they will gain by it: Perhaps a just and plenary reward. But this Aspect signifies something in the publick also, and that is some Effusion of humane Blood upon the account of the publick quarrel; and this the rather because Saturn is going to the Mundane Parallel with Mars from active and malignant parts of Heaven; and Mars also in a humane Sign. This Mundane Parallel between Saturn and Mars is from the 4th and 9th Houses applying, scilicet per mala; there shall be discontents and mischiefs among the people, & ipsi non erunt obediētes; these things tend also to a further mischiefe. Now if you do but consider the parts of Heaven from whence this Ray is made, and they are from [what follows]

Sidona, Treacherous Gadurian Sign] Scorpio and Gemini, and from the 9th House; which signifies Men that pretend to Zeal and Religion; and the 4th House which signifies Lands, Estates &c. Hence we may judge that there are private and malicious murmurings spread among such people [by those before mentioned] as are Converts and Bigots to them and their persuasion; and this designed for no other end than that of the Square of Jupiter and Mars before spoken of, that is, to raise unquiet Spirits into a Conspiracy, and if possible to form a Plot: but be thanked we are delivered from the Curse of Popery, and never it be suffered to enter again it is the fault of us all. With these positions, let us also consider that at this present New Moon there was an Eclipse of the Sun in the last decanate of Pisces: And at the postventional Full Moon, there is an eclipse of the Moon in the first decanate of Aries, both which I shall speak to in a page by themselves.

In this Figure there are three or four things of eminent signification for the Glory and Grandeur of England, and they are Jupiter, Mercury and Venus, all in Trine to the 22d deg. of Scorpio; and the Moon by her Latitude in the beginning of Leo a Trine to the Sun. Let the God of Heaven give a double Blessing to their Effects, and the Person whom they concern. In this Quarter will be generally spent in the private managing of the Affairs of Nations and Councils, and preparing for further Action when the Solstitial Ingress is past, in private murmurings, by a discontented Party that are never quiet, nor willing to be so, but endeavouring to involve all in confusion again, thereby to set up their Idol: And lastly, some Action by Sea or Land in the former part of April, and about the end of May; but in my Judgment not very considerable, and so I come to the Summer Quarter, which begins when the Sun enters the first Scruple of Cancer, and that is this year 1690, at 44 Minutes past Four of the Clock in the Morning, June the 11th.

At the time of this Ingress Cancer Ascends with 12 deg. above of, and 9 deg. of Pisces is on the Cusp of the M. C. the Sun in the 12th House, and the Moon in 24 deg. of Sagittarius. In the 6th Jupiter is in 6 deg. of Aries, and Mars in 6 deg. of Leo in the 3d. Saturn in 12 deg. of Scorpio [near treacherous Aquatick Sign] in the fifth House, Venus in 18, and Mercury in 23 deg.

Judicium Astrologicum pro Anno 1690.

deg. of Cancer; thus are the seven disposed and dispersed both in the Figure of Heaven and in the Zodiack.

The position is violent, notwithstanding Jupiter is in the 10th, and Venus in the Ascendent, for the Moon is going to an opposition of the Sun, and they both Cadent, and Mars is in a double Square with Saturn, that is Zodiacal and Mundane; and in a Mundane Parallel besides, going likewise to a Zodiacal Parallel, and with these things the Moon is also out of the Ecliptick, which doth not make them better, but worse. Yet this I must say, that neither Sun or Moon is either of them afflicted by Saturn or Mars.

Jupiter is in Aries in the 10th House, which is indeed a good and a great position, and shews advantage to Kings: Now by this rule every Nation that hath Jupiter in the 10th at this Ingress will be apt to predict good and great things to his or their King, but alas this is foolery: 'Tis true, the position is great, but no Man receiveth advantage by it, but those in whose Nativities affects the Radical places of their Sun, Moon, Part of Fortune, Mid-heaven and Horoscope; and I know a King, and but one neither in Europe that this position doth exactly affect, and I doubt not but he and his whole Nation will find the advantage of it, which God of his Infinite Mercy grant.

The opposition of the Sun and Moon will not be of any great consideration, what is of it will be some difference among the common sort and their Superiors, perhaps nothing more than some Hostility of the Mob. for the Moon is at the same time in a Mundane Trine to Jupiter, and the Sun also is going to a Square of him; and therefore considering that the Sun is Cadent, and under these two evil Aspects he seems to be the sufferer: Perhaps some great Man may be Seized and Committed, or Impeached of some High and Notorious Crime or Crimes.

But the great and only eminent position is the Squares and Parallels of the two Maleficks Saturn and Mars, and these admit of many considerations; for first, as they are under the Earth, and one of them in a Traiterous, Treacherous Sign, [that is, Scorpio] this shews private and secret Caballing, Conceiving and Plotting, which some of them may come to the Gallows for about October or November following, for it is a very unsuccessful way to work such Villanies under. Secondly, It gives many Robberies Robberies and Thievery, and from chence Murders and such like Villanies as attend those Actions. Thirdly, That which is the most remarkable and eminent Effect thereof is the destruction of Mankind where Armies are near and in the Field, and therefore in July following you may expect to hear some of the Effects of that nature; and assure your self that this Aspect will have the principal sway of the Affairs of this Quarter; and according to Bonatus it gives Quarrels and Difference among Great and Noble men, Violence and Confusion among the common sort, plundering of Cities and Towns, and taking Prisoners and Captives, with Destruction, Blood and other Ruin in those places where Armies are Marching and Ravaging. And to come to consider the Autumnal Quarter, which begins when the Sun toucheth the first Scruple of Libra, and that is this year 1690, on the 12th of September at 6 Hours 14 Min. 36 Seconds P.M.

At the time of this Ingress we find Aries Ascending and Jupiter in it, and the beginning of Capricorn on the 10th, the Sun in Conjunction with Mars, in opposition to Jupiter; and at the preventional Full Moon there was an Eclipse in the 26th deg. of Pisces, the Moon then applying to the Conjunction of Jupiter and Opposition of Mars: In the Figure it telleth find the Sun, Jupiter, Mars, the Moon and Mercury all afflicted; for the Moon by her Latitude is not yet separated wholly from the opposition of Saturn.

The Sun and Mars in Conjunction upon the Cusp of the West Angle, and Mercury by his Latitude not far from them there considered with the Opposition of Jupiter can shew no less than a Confederacy, and this may be unfolded several ways: First, it shews a sort of Men that are knit together in a lawless employment called Coining, Clipping, or some other such kind of unlawful way of using Metals, and this seems the more probable, because the Moon is Eclipsically in the Sign Gemini in Trine and Sextile to them all, and she in the 2d. House, the Angle of Riches and Wealth; and Mars and Mercury do commonly shew Metallick Operations in a Chymical Method, that is, by Fires and this concerns all those more or less in whose Nativities they happen, to be upon their Eminent Angles or the Places of their Lights or Mercury; and indeed it falls upon the French Tyrant his fortune, perhaps his Worship may do something to Quadrare with this Conjunction. Secondly, It shews a Confederacy nor less, for all of them except the Moon, are in Square to the Mid-Heaven, but the Mundane Parallel of Saturn is so near at their Heels, that whether it be the first or second sort they are sure to be punished for their Villany according as they deserve. But thirdly, It hath some signification of the publick Affairs as you may see by their being in Cardinal Signs, and this seems to shew some difference and division in Councils and State Affairs of that nature; and also much strife and slaughter in the Eastern Countreys, according to the Opinion of Ally, Significat Lites & Interfectiones multas in terra Orientis; but I believe some other parts also will feel the smart of this Judgment besides the East: And so I have done with this Quarter, and likewise the whole year, and come to the Eclipses, to speak in brief of their Number and Nature.

Of the Eclipses in this Year 1690.

There are Four Eclipses this year, two of the Sun, and two of the Moon.

The first is of the Sun on the 28th day of February at Ten of the Clock at Night, and therefore Invisible to us. It falls in the last part of the Sign Pisces, and of such an Eclipse Ptolomy says it gives damage to Rivers and Fountains, and such things as live thereon, and also to the early Fruits of the Earth that Eue be- comes in the Spring; but Faucine says it gives Seditionem, Cru- delitatem, Fitrociam & Inhumanitatem Millium extirpat. Cruelty, Sedition and Inhumanity of and among Sculdiers; but I am of Opinion its Effects will be without any great injury.

The second is a Visible Eclipse of the Moon on the 14th of May at Ten of the Clock at Night, at which time almost three parts of the Moons Body will be darkened; at that time Mars is Lord of the Ascendent, and in a Mundane Square to the Moon, the Effects of this Eclipse will be of ill Consequence and Injury divers ways.

The third is of the Sun on August the 24th, about One of the Clock in the Morning Invisible: This falls in the 11th degree of

of Virgo, of which Juntilin says it gives Famine, Plague and Sedition: I judge it gives destruction to Mankind, because it is in a humane Sign, and the Moon Lady of the Ascendant is going to the Body of Mars in Virgo likewise.

The fourth is of the Moon September the 8th, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, and therefore Invisible; it is celebrated in 26 degrees of Virgo, Juntilin says it threatens Poverty (and of all Men they have the least occasion for it) and gives Banishment and Slaughter; and so much for the Eclipses, &c.

N. B. I thought to have mentioned it in the Judgment of the year, but it will do as well here, seeing I have not room to expatiate and enlarge upon them: There is an excellent direction for Mischief this Summer to a great Person in Ireland, and that is the ☉ add ♀ ♀ which per Arc. obscure toucheth about the middle of July 1690, but in Zodiaco it toucheth in November following: The Arch of the first is 59 deg. 42 min. of the second 60 deg. and 4 min.

Secondly, His Friend the French Tyrant hath also this year in July comes by direction to the Square of Saturn in Zodiac Arch 48 deg. 5 min. which gives 52 years and 4 months: But because all directions of the Sun do generally touch 6 months before the measure of time expires, therefore we may judge the first to operate most part of the Summer, and this last of the Frenchmans in July, when Saturn comes to be stationary in his Ascendent, and in Square to the Sun in Leo on the Radical place of his Moon, and I hope it will swinge him if God please. I have not room to tell you what their Effects will be, you must read the Authors for that, and they give you but a very lame account neither, nor are they able.

The Conclusion.

Consider now, and gratefully repay
Those that have sav'd you when you bleeding lay,
When Laws and Liberties were torn away.
Think where you've been; think on your late past state,
And how you've scap'd your long doom'd bloody Fate.
Think how the Knife, the Wood, and the whole Crew
Were all prepar'd, no Sacrifice but you.

Think!

Think I had that blow been struck, that thing been done,
How all your Kennels with your Blood had run,
Your fears and jealousies had then been gone.
What hope was left you? where was all your skill?
Your prudent Politicks you talkt until God sav'd your Throats, and that against your will.
Would you be happy? do't without delay,
Our God hath shew'd the Instrument and way.
Would you again your Ease and Freedom get,
Ask and receive, the King hath offer'd it.
Would you be safe from Bloody France and Rome,
Our King will do't, if not, the fault's your own.
If not; [like those that grudge the King their Prayers]
You are Betrayers of your Selves and Hairs.

Flagellum Gadburianum.

The Text. ALL Hail my Masters, Eighty Eight is gone;
That year of Wonders which the World so
Yet hath produc'd for us to Anchor on, (scard;
Gad. Alm. A Prince of Wales, the Subject of each Bard;
In the Year And that thou now art mine, sweet Babe forgive, 1689. Jan. I'll sing thy praises, and thy Vassal Live.

Dear John! why all this Oant, or is't thy skill,
To shew indeed thou'rt true Jack Gadbury still?
Young Perkins Slave, a Convert bought by Rome,
Of all Religions too, but stuck to none.
And yet no Changling; thou art still the same
Thou ever wast, and so thou wilt remain.
Turn Papist if the Court be so; and when
That Faith's laid by, you are to seek again.
Then where's thy Anchor thou unsteady Tool,
Always a K. but now proclaim'd a Fool?
A Fool in Folio: Not this Change foresee!
This plaguy Eighty Eight hath cheated thee.
That year of Wonders, that which brought about Young Perkin's Birth, and also turn'd him out
For whom thy tir'd Brains were so devout.

Judicium Astrologicum pro Anno 1690.

Deluded Tool, by thy own art betray'd,
 And by those Stars you oft so famous made;
 Then Curse thy Stars, [for less you cannot do]
 Thy Fate, and all thy Constellations too:
 Sue 'em at Law, on Quo Warranto Score,
 Till thou art full reveng'd, ne're give 'em o're.
 Your Evidence are good, so are your Laws,
 Let the Dispensing Judges try the Cause,
 At least a Bolsworth Sum this Action draws.
 Art thou the Prophet of false Ahab's Crew,
 Young Perkin's seer? Ay, and a blind one too.

Art thou the Mau [Heaven forgive the sin]
 That Curst each Faith thy self had not been in?
 You damn'd the Church, the Test, and by that doom
 Thy Soul and Conscience too, to set up Rome,
 All our Apostate; and with that thou'lt have
 The Name of John the Prince of Wales his Slave,
 To whom your Prayers are [by your promise] due,
 And to his Father, could you know him too.
 How Jack! what stiff was that? you hence must be gone
 The common Scandal to Astrology.
 I can't resolve, whether [to tell you true]
Pity or Laughter is the more your due.
